ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

We were delighted to welcome the Archbishop of Canterbury, The Most Reverend Sarah Mullally to our school on Saturday 12th September. It was an incredible honour and privilege for our little school to have been selected from all of the schools in the county, while on her visit to Leicester Diocese.

Our wonderful Open the Book team, accompanied by Reverend Julia, put on a wonderful Open the Book service for children, parents, grandparents and staff in the school. The team told the story of The Creation, which linked nicely into new beginnings in our school year and also new beginnings as the Archbishop of Canterbury is in her first year of this prestigious role, also being the first woman to receive this title.

This was a wonderful morning and one which will stay in everyone's memory for many years to come. The school also received a gift of a wooden cross from the Archbishop, to remember her special visit.

The poster features a border of various autumn-themed illustrations including ears of corn, pumpkins, apples, and green peppers. The main text is centered and reads:
